

Fifth Third Bancorp

Senior Executive Management

Frank Forrest

Executive Vice President

Special Advisor to the Chief Executive Officer

Fifth Third Bancorp

Frank Forrest is executive vice president and serves Fifth Third Bancorp as special advisor to the CEO for key regulatory matters. He moved to that role in January 2020 after serving more than six years as chief risk officer.

In his previous role, Frank's responsibilities included development and implementation of a risk management framework, risk appetite, risk mitigation strategies and key measures across both the enterprise risk organization, as well as independent business control teams. Combined, these teams manage compliance, model, credit, market, strategic, liquidity, operational and reputational risk matters to support balanced, profitable growth.

Before joining Fifth Third in September 2013, Frank held numerous positions in credit and risk management at Bank of America Merrill Lynch, including managing director for quality control for mortgage banking, global debt products executive and commercial banking risk management executive. Before joining Bank of America, Frank worked for eight years at the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of the Comptroller of the Currency as a national bank examiner.

Education

Frank earned a bachelor's degree in accounting and finance from Florida State University.

Professional and Civic

Frank served from 2010 to 2014 on the Wake Forest University College Board of Visitors. For more than 10 years, he served Providence Day School in Charlotte, North Carolina, on the board of advisors, board of trustees and, finally, as chairman of the board of trustees.

