

Fifth Third Bancorp

Senior Executive Management

Jamie Leonard
Executive Vice President
Chief Risk Officer
Fifth Third Bancorp

Jamie Leonard serves as executive vice president and chief risk officer for Fifth Third Bancorp. He is responsible for key risk functions and overseeing the Company's governance and strategy for risk management, including relationships with key regulatory agencies.

Jamie's team leads enterprise initiatives for managing risk and sustaining a strong risk culture. Responsibilities include developing and implementing a risk management framework, risk appetite, risk mitigation strategies and key measures across both the enterprise risk organization, as well as independent business control teams.

Jamie previously served as Fifth Third's treasurer, overseeing the Company's investment portfolio, funding and liquidity, capital management and investor relations. Before that, he was director of Business Planning and Analysis, and he oversaw finance teams supporting business areas including Human Capital, Information Technology, Operations and Marketing. Jamie joined Fifth Third Bank in 1999 as a vice president in Bancorp Finance; he also has served as chief financial officer for Commercial Banking and, from 2005 to 2006, as chief financial officer of Fifth Third Bank (Cincinnati).

Before joining Fifth Third, Jamie worked at Arthur Andersen in its audit practice.

Jamie lives in suburban Cincinnati with his wife and their three children.

Education

Jamie received his bachelor's degree from Miami University.

Professional and Civic

Jamie serves on the boards of trustees for Talbert House and the Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park. He has previously served on the Accounting Advisory Board for Miami University and the Ohio Society of CPAs Foundation Board. He is a certified public accountant and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and Ohio Society of CPAs.
