

Fifth Third Bancorp

Senior Executive Management

Shellie R. Creson
Executive Vice President
Chief Auditor
Fifth Third Bancorp

Shellie Creson serves as executive vice president and chief auditor. She oversees Fifth Third's Internal Audit division and is responsible for providing strategic, proactive leadership and oversight of all audit activities conducted across the Bancorp.

Shellie joined Fifth Third in 2017 after serving 10 years at Regions Financial Corp. As executive vice president and deputy director of audit there, she transformed the audit division, improving its performance, reputation and regulatory relationships. Before assuming that role, Shellie was head of strategic and corporate planning, and before that was associate audit director.

Shellie began her career in public accounting at KPMG LLP, where she served clients in the financial services industry. Her more than 20 years' experience in the banking, finance and accounting fields also includes working for Pfizer Inc. and First Horizon National Corp.

Education

Shellie earned a bachelor's degree in economics and business administration from Rhodes College in Memphis, Tennessee. She is a certified public accountant and certified internal auditor.

Professional and Civic

Shellie is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Institute of Internal Auditors, the Tennessee Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Alabama Institute of Certified Public Accountants. She periodically speaks at industry conferences, including Institute of Internal Auditors of Memphis and Birmingham.

Shellie has been involved with several community organizations, including United Way of the Mid-South and of Central Alabama, Junior Achievement and JA BizTown, and Girl Scouts of America. She is a member of the 2019 ArtsWave Community Campaign Cabinet and is leading the 2019 ArtsWave Campaign for Fifth Third.

Shellie enjoys spending time with her two sons and daughter, and traveling.

