

Fifth Third Bank Commercial & Credit Leadership Program

Businesses drive economic growth and the Fifth Third Commercial Bank drives businesses.

Leveraging our credit and commercial expertise, we deliver innovative solutions to clients ranging from middle-market companies to some of the largest companies in the world. Because helping businesses grow and prosper benefits everyone, the Commercial and Credit Leadership Program will help you learn how to assess the needs of corporate clients and determine how best to serve them.

With this program, you'll focus on key disciplines such as portfolio and risk management, corporate banking and capital markets strategies.

We structure the hands-on training at each rotation to allow you to develop your leadership skills in services and solutions that include analyzing client financial statements, assessing risk, financial modeling and underwriting, all while developing key critical-thinking skills.

FIFTH THIRD BANK

Continued on reverse.

Career Paths

The Commercial and Credit Leadership Program career path can lead to roles within the Fifth Third Commercial Bank, such as:

- Corporate relationship management.
- Credit analyst.
- Treasury Management officer.

Full-time rotations are located in Cincinnati, Chicago and Charlotte, North Carolina. Other assignments may be based throughout the United States. Internship assignments are located in Cincinnati.

Commercial and Credit Leadership Program candidate qualities include:

- Strong interpersonal skills.
- Exceptional verbal and written communication skills.
- Financial and industry acumen.
- Ability to draw conclusions based on financial data.
- Problem-solving and critical-thinking skills.
- Process orientation and attention to detail.
- Majors: finance, accounting, and economics; cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.

We designed our leadership programs to provide meaningful work experience and targeted educational experiences to develop future organizational leaders.

Participants can strengthen their career progression and performance within their selected business path through:

- Rotational assignments.
- Exposure to senior leaders.
- Performance feedback and coaching.
- Mentoring relationships.
- Leadership and professional development through targeted education curricula.
- Social and team-building opportunities.
- Community involvement.

For more information and to apply, contact your university's career services office or visit college.53.com.

FIFTH THIRD BANK

Fifth Third Bank, Member FDIC.  Equal Housing Lender. Fifth Third Bank is proud to have an engaged and inclusive culture and to promote and ensure equal employment opportunity in all employment decisions regardless of race, color, gender, national origin, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, military status, veteran status or any other legally protected status.