

Fifth Third Bank Wealth & Asset Management Leadership Program

Invest in your future by helping others invest in theirs.

Building and managing wealth is what the trusted Wealth and Asset Management advisors at Fifth Third Bank do to help people reach their financial goals. It's a powerful responsibility that requires trustworthy individuals with extensive financial planning knowledge.

The Wealth and Asset Management Leadership Program (WAMLPL) enhances your skills and knowledge so you can help people with asset management and investment strategies. Throughout your time in the Leadership Program, you'll hone your knowledge of all our Wealth and Asset Management advisors' disciplines, such as portfolio management, wealth planning, wealth management advising and investment research.

While learning key investment disciplines, you'll also sharpen your ability to listen to customers in order to determine the financial course of action that best meets the individual needs of the customer.

FIFTH THIRD BANK

Continued on reverse.

Career Paths

The Wealth & Asset Management Leadership Program (WAMPLP) career path can lead to roles, such as:

- Associate wealth management advisor.
- Associate portfolio manager.

WAMPLP full-time assignments are based in Cincinnati, with rotations located throughout the Midwest and Southeast. Placement out of the program is focused throughout the Midwest and Southeast.

Internship assignments are located in Cincinnati.

WAMPLP candidate qualities include:

- Strong interpersonal skills.
- Exceptional verbal and written communication skills.
- Financial and industry acumen.
- Ability to draw conclusions based on financial data.
- Problem-solving and critical-thinking skills.
- Process orientation and attention to detail.
- Majors: finance, accounting, and economics; cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.

We designed our leadership programs to provide meaningful work experience and targeted educational experiences to develop future organizational leaders.

Participants can strengthen their career progression and performance within their selected business path through:

- Rotational assignments.
- Exposure to senior leaders.
- Performance feedback and coaching.
- Mentoring relationships.
- Leadership and professional development through targeted education curricula.
- Social and team-building opportunities.
- Community involvement.

For more information and to apply, contact your university's career services office or visit college.53.com.

FIFTH THIRD BANK

Fifth Third Bank, Member FDIC.  Equal Housing Lender. Fifth Third Bank is proud to have an engaged and inclusive culture and to promote and ensure equal employment opportunity in all employment decisions regardless of race, color, gender, national origin, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, military status, veteran status or any other legally protected status.