Automotive and racing is part of our DNA

With roots in the Midwest that date back well before the Model T, Fifth Third Bank has a long history of serving the needs of automotive companies.

While much has changed over the years, our passion for helping businesses put cars on the road and on the track has not. Today, we are more committed than ever as a member of SEMA, a PRI Founding Member and a corporate partner in several premier racing series.

Under-the-hood knowledge and experience matters

Having a bank that understands the nuts and bolts of your business is critical to achieving your financial objectives. At Fifth Third, we know the industry, the challenges you face and the nuances of your business cycle.

By leveraging our deep experience to provide best-in-class solutions and trusted advice, we're proud to have many of the country's top automotive and racing companies as our customers.

Our local, high-performance team means business

We've assembled a team of highly respected banking professionals with deep expertise across a broad spectrum of financial solutions and a proven track record of forging lasting commercial relationships. Many are familiar faces at the SEMA and PRI Shows, where they've been active contributors and trusted industry advocates for decades.

Let's connect—whether at the SEMA Show, PRI, or anytime throughout the year. Reach out to discover how we can help drive your business forward.
